

City Works 2015
Literary Journal
Poetry, Fiction, Photography,
Art Work, Creative Nonfiction

Submissions Wanted!

www.cityworkspress.org/journal.html

Who We Are:

Students, staff, and faculty writers and artists serve as the editorial board and assist with the production of each year's publication.

Writers and Artists Published:

We publish the work of emerging and established national and local writers. We also publish the work of many writers and artists from the San Diego City College student body and community.

Featured Writer:

A local and a national writer will be showcased, including a short biography and a selection of his or her work. In 2014, Lisa E. Overton Calvert was our National Award Winner, and our Featured Local Writer was Tamara Johnson.

Prizes Awarded:

A $50 prize will be awarded for outstanding work in the following categories: National Award, student poetry, student fiction, student nonfiction, art/photography and cover design
